Welcome to Principles of Marketing, the on-line summer course. This course will be run totally asynchronously, meaning that students can access the material 24/7 and there will never be a set time that all students must be on-line simultaneously.

Students will be required to keep up with the readings and the discussion forums. The course spans five weeks, which means an intensive experience. As your instructor I will be on-line a minimum of twice daily, with the exception of Sundays. If there are any questions/problems/challenges, contact me so we can resolve them quickly. So, fasten your seat belts and we will be off.

Course Materials

Required Text: Grewal and Levy, Marketing. McGraw-Hill Irwin, Boston, MA. Fourth Edition. 2014. ISBN: 978-0-07-802900-4 Note: You do not need to purchase the version of the text that has the Connect software. This software will not be used in this course. (This textbook has been used this past academic year, so there should be used texts available at a reduced price.)

Needed: Regular access to a PC, a printer and the Internet

Strongly Recommended: Reading the “Marketplace” section of The Wall Street Journal

This course will utilize the UNH Blackboard system, http://blackboard.unh.com. Each week’s class lectures, discussion forums, and assignments will be posted on the system and students may download lecture materials to aid in note taking and studying.

Course Overview

ADMN 585 covers marketing as the process of planning and developing goods and services to satisfy the needs of target customers: consumers, other businesses, institutions. The focus is on how marketing contributes to the firm’s goals through product planning, pricing, promotion, and distribution policies.

Grades

Exams: There will be two (2) examinations, each based on material from the textbook, as well as other material and exercises done in class. The two exams combined are worth 40 points of your grade.

Case Analysis: There will be two individual case analyses, each worth 20 points.

Participation: Students are expected to be active participants in the discussion forums. Multiple contributions are anticipated as the instructor and students post their thoughts and reflections on the posted topic. Overall participation will be worth 20 points toward the final grade.

Note: Final grades are not rounded up, thus a 92.9% is an A-.

Assignment Details

Details on each assignment will be posted on Blackboard on a timely basis.

Policy on Late Submissions

All exams and written assignments must be submitted by the due date. Written assignments should be in a professional business style (use 3rd person; double spaced; correct spelling and grammar; well organized). Any late submissions must be accompanied by an explanation and accompanying documentation. All late submissions are subject to grade penalties including a grade of zero. The instructor reserves the right to refuse late submissions.

Class Participation

Weekly participation is required. For discussion and blog postings, the participation will be graded based on the following criteria and values. Review this carefully.

Quality of postings
Below are desired attributes for a posting.
- Ability to synthesize the main concepts from instructor, course content, external resources and class community.
- Use of proper grammar.
- Ideas are organized, persuasive and elevate the overall dialogue.
- Opinions are substantiated.
- Demonstration of critical or creative thinking.
- Evidence of preparation.

Quantity of postings
Per forum, five to seven postings spread out over the duration of the week are expected. Posting 5 times in one sitting is not acceptable. When you contribute over several days, you are more able to synthesize other perspectives and contribute to an evolving discussion. A good rule of thumb is to post early in the week after you have reviewed the related materials and reading. Allow others to respond and then post again after the dialogue has developed. Simple “I agree” comments are not considered as valid contributions unless they are backed up by a substantive discussion.

Etiquette

- Divergent opinions. Academic debate and differences are embraced in higher education and the forums in this course. Be mindful and respectful of how you articulate a difference or divergent opinion.
- ‘I agree’ statements. Unsubstantiated ‘I agree’ posts will not count to final participation grade without articulated rationale to support opinion.
- Off-topic postings. Discussions occasional veer off-topic. This is normal. These posts will not count and students are asked to stay on-topic.
- Long responses. Grades will be influenced by an ability to demonstrate an understanding of the topic or question and on one’s ability to be concise.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Promptness and frequency</th>
<th>Poor effort</th>
<th>Average effort</th>
<th>Excellent effort</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Does not post; posts marginally.</td>
<td>Postings are on time and random.</td>
<td>Postings are early, frequent and between [5-6] postings.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grammar</td>
<td>Grammar has not been checked.</td>
<td>Poor grammar or typos are frequent in postings.</td>
<td>Proper grammar is consistently applied.</td>
</tr>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Relevance</th>
<th>Postings have no relevance on the topic or assignment.</th>
<th>Some postings are pertinent to topic and assignment.</th>
<th>Postings are consistently connected to the topic and assignment and reflect student’s preparation.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Expression &amp; Organization of Ideas</td>
<td>Ideas and or opinions are not organized.</td>
<td>Some postings convey clear ideas and opinions. Other postings are lacking in organization or original expression.</td>
<td>Contributions are clearly articulated; reflect understanding of topic, substantive insights and persuasive logic.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Building Community</td>
<td>Does not participate in learning community.</td>
<td>Irregularly demonstrates initiative in adding to the dialogue and creating community.</td>
<td>Demonstrates consistent initiative in building community through discussion. Demonstrates ‘listening’ to peers and elevates the overall quality of the discussion.</td>

Student to Instructor Communication Expectations

I will be active in the BB class area daily, Monday through Saturday. I usually login early in the afternoon and again in the evening. If you post a question for me in a forum, anticipate a response within 24 hours or sooner. On Sunday, I may not login at all. If you post late on Saturday, I might not respond until Monday afternoon.

Questions related to assignments or learning should first be asked, if possible, in the respective discussion forums or blog. The use of email is reserved for questions of a private nature. If you would like to schedule virtual office hours, send me an email and I will respond promptly. My contact information is as follows:

Technical Requirements and Technical Support

See website listings for current recommendations and requirements related to this course - http://unh.edu/eunh/technical-requirements Technical assistance related to Blackboard is available at http://unh.edu/eunh/student-resources

University Disability Accommodations

It is my policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Reasonable accommodations will be provided for students with physical, sensory, systemic, cognitive, learning, and psychiatric disabilities which have been documented by the University’s ACCESS Center. If you have a disability requiring accommodations in this class, please let me know.
Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Students are required to abide by the UNH Academic Honesty policy located in the Student Rights, Rules, and Responsibilities Handbook.

As your instructor, I proactively monitor academic integrity through regular use of tools like SafeAssign and a diversified assessment approach. All work submitted to SafeAssign becomes a part of a UNH proprietary database. This is actively used to identify future intellectual property theft. Plagiarism of any type may be grounds for receiving an “F” in an assignment or an “F” in the overall course. Plagiarism is defined as “the unattributed use of the ideas, evidence, or words of another person, or the conveying the false impression that the arguments and writing in a paper are your own.” (UNH Academic Honesty Policy, 09.3) Incidents are reported to the school dean and may be grounds for further action. If you have questions about proper citation, refer to your department’s writing guidelines. You can contact me at any time on this issue. Background of the Instructor

Audrey Ashton-Savage has a B.A. in German and an M.B.A., both from the University of New Hampshire. She has had a variety of jobs in her career, all of which centered on marketing. Before joining the Paul College, she served as Vice President of Enrollment Management at the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut. Prior to that, she was Vice President for Strategic Initiatives at Spalding University in Louisville, Kentucky. In the late 90s Audrey was Dean of Graduate and Professional Programs at Emmanuel College in Boston. In the 1980s she worked at Nashua Corporation in New Hampshire as a Product Manager and New Product Development Manager. She has served as national chair for the Commission for Accelerated Programs and continues to serve on its Board of Directors. For over 20 years Audrey has served on the Board of Directors of Lamprey Health Care, a community health center with a budget of over $13 million, serving over 17,000 patients annually in its Nashua, Raymond and Newmarket offices. She currently serves as President of the board.
